+ THE MUNCHKING +

**Thread started by and the term MUNCHKING created by Dave Brohman**

And the final note....

For times when the term munchkin just won't do, I give you the MUNCHKING!

How to spot the MUNCHKING!:

- In order to prove he is not a munchkin, he uses his weakest weapon in combat (a +5 Vorpall Knitting Needle).
- He ride into battle on an Avatar.
- He posts messages with title like "NEW IMPROVED ANONYMITY".
- He spent more time on his .sig than you spent on your masters thesis.
- He has yet to find a character sheet with enough room for "Level".
- He ticks off his magic Items in the ENCYCLOPEDIA MAGICA to save trees.
- He wears a t-shirt that says "My other magic sword is ALSO an Artifact."
- He is annoyed that the stat tables in the PHB only go up to 25.
- He insists on taking a Half Elf/Half Dwarf to get ALL the good bonuses.
- He insists that his last GM let him have the 'Rod of Seven Parts' ("See, its right here on my character sheet beside 'Excalibur'").
- He thinks wizard spells are CUMULATIVE.
- He actually said "I played D&D with Gary Gygax at a convention" and seems PROUD of it.
- He is reading this post and getting angry.
- He penalizes players XP for wasting time talking to NPCs.
- He thinks that Elminster is a whimp.
- He thinks the Tarrasque is a whimp.
- He thinks GOD is a whimp.
- He thinks the DM is a whimp.
- His paladin puts on the Hand and Eye of Vecna, and _Vecna's_ alignment starts changing to Lawful Good.
- He has Heward's Mystical Organ fully repaired and tuned up and sitting in his castle's basement gathering dust.
- He installed a mechanical play option onto the Organ to play complicated tunes without error.
- His Charisma is 25 and he doesn't even know what that means.
- He keeps telling the DM that the Treasure Tables are way too stingy;
- And he insists that the listed treasure type for "Kobold" applies to each individual kobold.
- He uploads to AOL 35 poorly but painstakingly executed drawings of all the fantastically beautiful and dangerous women who cling to his character like lint.
- He (a different munchkin) downloads the above drawings, and orders his DM to let him have them as henchmen.
- The name of every spell he has ever researched begins with "Improved"
- He thought Tomb of Horrors was simple, even though he fell for every single trap in the dungeon.
- your character has more hp's than xp's and he's not first level.
- Your friends stop playing with you 'cause they're just jealous'
- Your character sheet is longer than the encyclopedia britannica.
- You've sent a letter to the Vatican insisting they canonize your character.
- Your armor has more pluses than a first graders addition homework.
- Reading about the character in the 'invincible PC' post gave you a warm fuzzy.
- You have a law suit pending against TSR for not including your character in 'Legends and Lore'. (counts double if you think you may win)
- You've been published in the dragon magazine April edition of 'unanswerables' more than once.
- You think encumbrance should be banned from play permanently.
- You think character Hit dice are cumulative (ie. a third level paladin has 6 d10's worth of hit points).
- When someone says 'D&D is just a game' you hug your character sheet to your chest and whisper 'he was only kidding... he didn't mean it.'
- You claim to be immune to tactical nukes because they aren't + 3 or better.
- When your DM said the monsters also get crit hits, you attacked him with a chair.

- Your characters strength is Avagadro's number.
- You claim to have killed the entire deities and demigods.
- You laminate your character sheets.
- (FR players) Ao is your squire, and Elminster your scribe.
- Your character is his own deity.
- You bought a three hundred dollar HP calculator so you could figure out how many gold coins you have.
- Your original character was gonna be a PALADIN-MAGE-DRUID-ASSASSIN-MONK, but when your DM wouldn't listen to your 'reasonable' request to suspend the split experience rule, you whined for a moment then chose your present character.
- Finally, when you roll dice it goes something like this:
You use the 12d6 drop the lowest 9 method twelve times and take the six best. You then roll again for your 'bonus points', only when you roll and somehow fail to get three sixes, you say 'okay, this time for real...'
- He thinks that a Girdle of Storm Giant strength, gauntlets of Ogre Power, and a Warhammer of Thunder of Lightning are a common combination for magical treasure and he gets mad if the Warhammer is not Vorpal w/life stealing Abilities.
- His character sheet has semen stains on it.
- His THACO is Planck's constant.
- He thinks ordinary munchkins are wimps.
- He devised a new ability generation system - 4d100, keep 3 highest.
- He disposed of all the regular magical items in the DMG because they weren't powerful enough.
- He expects his god to pray to him.
- his dex is lightspeed

P.S.- This is all in fun. If you got angry, you are a MUNCHKING! and I don't really care what you think!

"...He must be the best man in his world and a good enough man for any world... He is a lonely man and his pride is that you will treat him as a proud man or be sorry you ever saw him. He talks as the man of his age talks - that is, with rude wit, a lively sense of the grotesque, a disgust for sham, and a contempt for pettiness."

Raymond Chandler "The Simple Art of Murder"
